PURPOSE INVESTIGATING MENTAL SCIENCE FIELD

Chicago Clergyman Starts Class to Teach Laws for the Benefit of Humanity

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 10.—The Rev. Johnston Myers has given an explanation of the objects of the psychotherapeutics class which he is forming in his church.

"This is an educational enterprise for the scientific investigation of mind cure," he says. "We propose to cover the whole field of mental science in its philosophical, psychological, historical, medical, and religious aspects. The object is to bring into the homes the assaults of the best science, the soundest learning, and the most recent investigations on this subject. The time is near when the power to heal the sick as well as to cast out devils, may be the test by which the usefulness of the church may be gauged. Mental and spiritual laws are just as immutable as those of the physical realm. Every one should understand these laws and teach them and place in the hands of the people the knowledge with which to heal and cleanse themselves in the name of Christ."

"This knowledge will be an invaluable aid to parents in bringing up their children; it will help the well people to keep well and the sick people to get well, and it will help the business man to succeed in his business."

Several well-known scientists and physicians will give the class instructions. The first meeting will be held next Monday.

TO STOP TRUSTS IS NATION'S DUTY

Views of Gov. Johnson of Minnesota Expressed to University Professor

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 14.—"In the Kremlin, fear of revolution blanching the cheek of the Czar. In the United States there is smoke that may be fanned into flame."

This statement made by Governor Johnson of Minnesota to Dr. Samuel F. Johnson, formerly head of the Department of Political Economy, University of Wisconsin, was quoted by the latter in an address before the Political Science Club of the University of Chicago.

"The Governor told me that it is our duty as a nation to prevent conflagration by stopping the manufacture of such inflammable material as the trusts and special privilege," said Dr. Johnson. "He said that the price of good government is good citizens, even at the sacrifice of party affiliation."

"Minnesota's executive said that the principles of Washington, Jefferson, and Lincoln have been supplanted by the influences of Harriman, Armour, and Rockefeller, and that Washington founded a nation of freedmen which now submits to commercial serfdom."

Dr. Johnson said he agreed with Governor Johnson and declared that equal opportunities and the abolishment of special privileges can only be brought about by adherence to the ideas of such men as Washington and Lincoln.

RAILROAD MAGNATES LAUD HAWAIIAN VIM

E. E. Calvin, vice president and general manager of the Southern Pacific railway, at San Francisco, and W. H. Bancroft of the Union Pacific, at Salt Lake, are delighted with their trip to Hawaii.

"The enterprise and up-to-date methods of your business men in these islands is a revelation," remarked Mr. Calvin.

Both gentlemen have been here for the past two weeks, and have certainly gone to the trouble of investigating things for themselves. They made a round trip incognito over the O. R. & L. system and took the opportunity of forming their own opinions at first hand.

The Hilo railroad interested the two gentlemen very much, and the methods of handling the business offered was thought most economical.

Messrs. Calvin and Bancroft, naturally took great interest in the island's railroads, but by no means were blind to the sugar and pineapple industries. Mr. Bancroft said:

"The great pineapple fields, with their immense output every year, and the production of other fruits, will cause the transcontinental railroads to look also into the business of hauling fruit. There is a great tonnage of products to come out of these islands and it is worth working for."

The two gentlemen sailed yesterday on the Mongolia for the Coast. Just before the vessel sailed Mr. Bancroft had a good word for Hawaii. "These islands are beautiful and attractive in every way, and the hospitality of the people is something that one can barely appreciate. The islands are hospitable in the extreme and—oh, well, I can't express myself properly. I'm glad I came, and I'm sorry I'm going."
